“TOGETHER, BUILDING A BETTER ALACHUA COUNTY ONE ACTION AT A TIME”

The Affiliated Congregations To Improve Our Neighborhoods (The ACTION Network) is a non-profit Faith-Based organization that assists local congregations to organize and mobilize so they can address quality of life issues.

The ACTION Network is comprised of 20 congregations that represent 6,000 families. Our values are that people know what is best for their communities and that people need to be organized to speak to those needs. Congregations have an important and prophetic role to speak up against injustices affecting families. ACTION invests its time building relationships that help transform people’s lives and the communities. We are a member of PICO (Pacific Institute for Community Organizations), a network of faith-based community organizations.

We are “Together, Building a Better Alachua County One ACTION At A Time” by doing the following:

- Initiated Teen Zone Program, an after-school program for Middle School children.
- Initiated and built Gainesville’s first skateboard park at Westside Park.
- Changed bus routes so that senior’s and disabled residents at Pine Grove Apartments have transportation.
- Initiated the installation of speed humps in a Southwest neighborhood.
- Worked with the City of Gainesville to enforce codes in the Duval Community, cleaning lots and removing abandoned cars.
